In May 1968 a Presbytery Home Mission Committee appeared at the Church with the news that Rev. Mr. W. A. Ready, a Presbyter was to be appointed as the next Pastor. He was one of the older Pastors to be installed.

In March 1968, when he proved to be the first Pastor in the history of the Church, he was not able to take full advantage of the situation, which was quite different from what he had experienced in his previous ministry.

The first week after his arrival, he was invited to the Rectory and introduced to the people of the community. After a visit to the Church, he was invited to a dinner at the Rectory, where he was given a warm welcome by the people.

In October 1968, the new Pastor was installed, and the congregation was pleased to welcome him to the community.

Your case: "If I was..." I guess... We... I mean... I know... Well, I mean... I..."..."

The Church was extended to Reesor, Baker, Shone, and the people were pleased with the new Pastor.

The Church was well supported by the people, and the Pastor was pleased with the progress made.

Dr. Lawson was a close friend of the people, and he was always ready to help them in any way he could.
