William Francis Read
Son of John Read

Sometime around 1849, WILLIAM FRANCIS READ, left his family in Mississippi and followed other adventurers west in search of gold. No records have been found saying whether he fulfilled his dream and "struck it rich." He died 6 July 1850 in Nevada City, California of typhoid fever.

William married Maria L. Dotson of Nashville, Tennessee and Yazoo County, Mississippi on 8 Oct. 1836. They were the parents of six children: Mary Elizabeth "Bettie"; Charles William "Savez"; John Jeremiah; Joseph Dotson; William Francis, Jr.; and Frances.

Wm. Francis read died of typhoid fever during the gold rush in CA., per this item in the November 1, 1850 Nashville Advocate:
"My son William Read d. July 6 in Nevada City, CA of typhoid fever, brother John (error, either by John Read or the paper) F. Read, b. Montgomery Co. TN Jan 6, 1817 m. Mira L. Dedsm (also wrong) formerly of Nashville; left wife and 5 children. Signed John Read."

Maria L. Dotson was of Winchester, VA. Tradition says that her mother, Miss Tully owned a large colonial estate "Tullieries" (not proven).

Maria had a sister, Mary Malinda (b. 28 Feb. 1824, Winchester, VA) age 57, appears as an aunt with the family of Marie’s dau., Mary Eliz. Read and her husband Robert N. Hall and their children along with Charles W. Read’s Children, Roby, Louise, and Mallory. Mary Malinda, according to the Oct 1841 Vicksburg Daily Whit, m. at Perch Place in Hills Co., MS, by Rev. Geo. Miller to Francis Ilsley, Jr. Esq. of Vicksburg, MS. Yazoo Co., MS, Probate Minute Bk. D, March Term 1848, p. 377: Petition of Mary B. Ilsley for dower of lands of Francis Ilsley, deceased. Notice that the petition calls her Mary B. There seems to be some question of
