With Revolver, In Their Home Friday

...During the same season that he was in the field, Mr. and Mrs. Revolver, of Toledo, were in the home of their daughter, Mrs. Richard, who lived in Detroit. As they were in the house, Mrs. Revolver, suddenly and without warning, fell to the floor. Mr. Revolver, who had been in the room, heard the sound and ran to the door. He found his wife lying on the floor, still alive, but unconscious. He immediately called the doctor and the ambulance, but by the time they arrived, Mrs. Revolver had passed away.

The Revolver family was shocked and devastated by the sudden loss of their beloved daughter. They had planned to stay in Detroit for a few more days to attend to the funeral arrangements, but their plans were put on hold as they grieved for Mrs. Revolver. The family gathered around her bed, comforting each other and praying for her soul.
