

Charlie Kirk Was No Martyr, Saint or Follower of Christ

Sacerdotus website, Sep 13, 2025

Charlie Kirk: A Legacy of Division, Not Discipleship

In the wake of Charlie Kirk's tragic assassination on September 10, 2025, at Utah Valley University, the world has been flooded with tributes portraying him as a champion of faith, freedom, and conservative values. As the founder and CEO of Turning Point USA (TPUSA), Kirk built a multimillion-dollar empire mobilizing young conservatives, often invoking the name of Jesus Christ to rally his followers. He frequently declared, "I'm nothing without Jesus," and positioned himself as a defender of Christian principles against what he called the moral decay of modern America. Yet, a closer examination of Kirk's rhetoric and actions reveals a profound disconnect between his professed Christianity and the teachings of Christ, particularly the commandment to "love your neighbor as yourself" (Mark 12:31). Kirk's commentaries, laced with antisemitic undertones, allusions to white supremacy, disdain for civil rights advancements, and overt xenophobia, stand in stark opposition to the Gospel's call for love, justice, and humility.

This blog post, written from the perspective of Sacerdotus—a Catholic apologist committed to truth and charity—aims to critically analyze Kirk's legacy. We condemn the violence that ended his life, as all human life is sacred, but we cannot ignore how his words sowed seeds of hatred and division. By citing Kirk's own statements and comparing them directly to Scripture, we will demonstrate why his approach was not merely un-Christian but actively harmful to the body of Christ. We will also address his views on Catholicism, his and his wife Erika's religious affiliations, and conclude with a sobering reflection on his sainthood claims.

Kirk's death has sparked debates about political violence in America, with President Trump calling it a "political assassination" and ordering flags lowered to half-staff. While we pray for peace and justice, Kirk's life demands scrutiny. He was no mere provocateur; he was a self-proclaimed Christian leader whose influence reached millions. If Christianity is about imitating Christ—who washed the feet of his disciples and forgave his persecutors—then Kirk's path diverged dramatically. Let us explore this through his key controversies.

Antisemitic Remarks: Echoes of Division, Not the Gospel of Love

Charlie Kirk positioned himself as a staunch ally of Israel, often praising its role in Judeo-Christian civilization and defending it against critics. Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu eulogized him as a "lion-hearted friend of Israel" after his death. Yet, beneath this pro-Israel facade lay a pattern of remarks that trafficked in antisemitic tropes, blaming Jewish individuals and institutions for societal ills. These statements not only alienated Jewish communities but also contradicted Christ's command to love one's neighbor, as seen in the Parable of the Good Samaritan (Luke 10:25-37), where Jesus teaches that neighbors include even those from despised groups.

One of Kirk's most notorious comments came in November 2023, while defending Elon Musk's endorsement of an antisemitic post. Kirk stated, "Jewish communities have been pushing the exact kind of hatred against whites that they claim to want people to stop using against them," and added that "the philosophical foundation of anti-whiteness has been largely financed by Jewish donors in the country." This echoes the age-old antisemitic conspiracy of Jewish control over media and finance, a trope that fueled pogroms and the Holocaust. In the Gospel, Jesus rebukes such division: "You have heard that it was said, 'You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy.' But I say to you, Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you" (Matthew 5:43-44). Kirk's words, far from loving enemies, vilified an entire group, fostering hatred rather than reconciliation.

Earlier, in October 2023, shortly after Hamas's attack on Israel, Kirk accused Jewish philanthropists of "subsidizing your own demise by supporting institutions that breed anti-Semites and endorse genocidal killers." He labeled "elite Jewish culture" as a primary funding source for universities that "breed Jew hatred." This self-contradictory rhetoric—praising Israel while scapegoating American Jews—mirrors the duplicity Christ condemned in the Pharisees: "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you tithe mint and dill and cumin, and have neglected the weightier matters of the law: justice and mercy and faithfulness" (Matthew 23:23). Kirk's selective outrage ignored systemic issues while fixating on Jewish "elites," a classic antisemitic ploy.

The Anti-Defamation League (ADL) accused Kirk of creating "a vast platform for extremists and far-right conspiracy theorists," including white nationalists who attended TPUSA events. In 2023, Kirk appeared to endorse the Great Replacement Theory, a conspiracy often laced with antisemitism, claiming nonwhite immigrants would displace white Americans—a narrative he tied to Jewish influence. Jewish groups like the American Jewish Committee expressed horror at his killing but noted his history of spreading such canards. Even after his death, antisemites exploited the tragedy, baselessly blaming Israel or Jews, highlighting how Kirk's rhetoric fueled a toxic cycle.

Compare this to the Gospel: Jesus, a Jew himself, taught radical inclusion. In John 4, he speaks to the Samaritan woman, breaking ethnic and gender barriers. Kirk's words, by contrast, built walls, violating the command to "do to others as you would have them do to you" (Luke 6:31). His antisemitism was not mere oversight; it was a deliberate choice that undermined the unity Christ prayed for: "That they may all be one" (John 17:21).

Kirk's defenders point to his pro-Israel stance as absolution, but as the Forward noted, this painted a "contradictory picture." True Christian love doesn't cherry-pick; it embraces all neighbors, Jewish or otherwise. Kirk's failure here reveals a faith more aligned with political tribalism than Gospel truth.

White Supremacy Allusions: Prioritizing Power Over the Poor

Kirk's rhetoric often alluded to white supremacy, framing "white Christian America" as under siege by immigrants, LGBTQ+ individuals, and racial justice advocates. The Southern Poverty Law Center (SPLC) documented how TPUSA warned followers that their "families, religion, and entire way of life were under attack," tying liberty to "demographic dominance"—a cornerstone of supremacist ideology. This echoes the Gospel's inversion: Christ blessed the meek and poor (Matthew 5:3-5), not the powerful seeking to preserve dominance.

In one chilling remark, Kirk said, "Happening all the time in urban America, prowling Blacks go around for fun to go target white people, that's a fact." This racist stereotype paints Black people as inherent criminals, ignoring systemic injustices. Jesus, however, dined with tax collectors and sinners (Mark 2:15-17), commanding, "Whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me" (Matthew 25:40). Kirk's words dehumanized the marginalized, the very ones Christ championed.

Kirk denied systemic racism, calling white privilege a "racist lie" and critical race theory "dangerous indoctrination." He called George Floyd a "scumbag," minimizing police brutality. In 2024, he quipped, "If I see a Black pilot, I'm going to be like, boy, I hope he's qualified," blaming DEI for imagined incompetence. Such comments perpetuate the myth of white superiority, contradicting Galatians 3:28: "There is neither Jew nor Gentile, neither slave nor free, nor is there male and female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus."

TPUSA hosted white nationalists like Nick Fuentes, and Kirk praised Steve Sailer, a known supremacist. He embraced Christian nationalism, claiming "liberty was only possible with a Christian population," implying non-Christians (often code for non-whites) threaten freedom. This mirrors the Pharisees' exclusionary legalism, which Jesus dismantled. As The Nation argued post-death, Kirk's legacy was one of "white supremacist apologia."

Christ's kingdom is "not of this world" (John 18:36), yet Kirk weaponized faith for cultural dominance. His allusions to supremacy bred fear, not love, violating the second greatest commandment.

Disdain for Civil Rights: Rejecting Justice for the Sake of Power

Kirk's contempt for civil rights was blatant. He called the Civil Rights Act of 1964 a "huge mistake" that created a "permanent DEI-type bureaucracy" and an "anti-white weapon." In April 2024, he said it "created a beast" turned against whites. This dismisses a law ending segregation and discrimination, core to biblical justice: "Learn to do good; seek justice, correct oppression; bring justice to the fatherless, plead the widow's cause" (Isaiah 1:17).

Kirk once praised Martin Luther King Jr. as a "hero," but by 2023, he labeled him "awful... not a good person" who said "one good thing he didn't actually believe." He planned a campaign to discredit King and the Act, calling it a path to "permanent bureaucracy." WIRED reported TPUSA's efforts to rewrite history, linking King to "violent unrest." This revisionism ignores King's nonviolent witness, akin to Christ's: "Blessed are the peacemakers" (Matthew 5:9).

Kirk mocked Black congresswomen like Sheila Jackson Lee, saying she lacked "brain processing power" without affirmative action and "had to steal a white person's slot." Such disdain echoes the rich man's neglect of Lazarus (Luke 16:19-31), whom Jesus condemns for ignoring the poor. Civil rights embody the Gospel's preferential option for the oppressed; Kirk's rejection prioritized white grievance over equity.

Post-death, fact-checkers confirmed these quotes, underscoring his legacy of undermining equality. Christ flipped tables for justice (Matthew 21:12); Kirk flipped the script to preserve inequality.

Xenophobia and Racism: Borders Over Brotherhood

Kirk's xenophobia was rampant, viewing immigrants as threats to "white Christian America." He opposed Indian immigration, saying, "America does not need more visas for people from India," claiming they dominated jobs and non-Christian Indians were unaligned with America—unless Christian. This racializes faith, contradicting Acts 10:34-35: "God shows no partiality, but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him."

On Gaza refugees, Kirk tweeted, "The West shouldn't take a single person from Gaza... There are about 50 Muslim majority nations that should take them before the West does." Labeling Muslims incompatible with the West, he warned, Jesus fled to Egypt as a refugee (Matthew 2:13-15) and welcomed strangers (Matthew 25:35). Kirk's fear-mongering violated "love your neighbor."

He promoted the Great Replacement as "well under way," a "strategy to replace white rural America." This xenophobic conspiracy ignores Leviticus 19:34: "The foreigner residing among you must be treated as your native-born. Love them as yourself." Kirk's racism extended to calling Black culture "un-fixable and crime-ridden" via TPUSA allies.

His "Exposing Critical Racism Tour" fought "racist theories," but amplified them. Christ healed the centurion's servant without borders (Matthew 8:5-13); Kirk built them with hate.

Other Racist and Xenophobic Elements: A Pattern of Prejudice

Kirk's disdain extended to LGBTQ+ rights, calling them "sexual anarchy" and advocating "Nuremberg-style trials" for gender clinics. He urged women to "submit to your husband," invoking Ephesians 5 selectively. This misogyny ignores Christ's elevation of women (John 4).

On Islam, he said it's "not compatible with western civilization." Post-9/11, he ranted about a Such Islamophobia defies 1 John 4:18: "There is no fear in love."

TPUSA's alliances with extremists amplified this. Kirk's "debates" often baited minorities, farming engagement via race-baiting.

Kirk's Views on Catholicism: Follow Jesus, Not the "Institution"

Kirk identified as an evangelical Christian, emphasizing personal faith in Jesus over denominational structures. In a January 2025 podcast with Catholic apologist Trent Horn, Kirk argued Catholics should "follow Jesus, not the Catholic institution," critiquing papal authority and Pope Francis as "Marxist." He said, "You shouldn't bring someone to Christianity. You should bring them to Jesus," implying the Church adds unnecessary burdens.

Yet, Kirk praised Catholics for fighting life, marriage, and transgenderism. He noted young men flocking to Catholic Mass for its "ancient and beautiful" rituals. In 2025, he interviewed exorcist Father Carlos Martins, showing openness.

Regarding Erika: She is a baptized Catholic, raised in the faith, and the family attended St. Bernadette Catholic Church in Scottsdale. <grok: Kirk was close to its pastor, Father Don Kline, and they visited the National Basilica. No evidence suggests they planned to join the Church; Kirk remained Protestant, though respectful.

Kirk's critique aligns with evangelical sola scriptura but ignores Matthew 16:18: "You are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church." His selective engagement—praising Catholic morals while rejecting authority—mirrors his broader inconsistencies.

Kirk's Own Words vs. the Gospel: A Stark Contrast

Kirk often invoked Jesus: "Jesus defeated death so you can live," or But his actions contradicted. On neighbors: Charlie Kirk's slaying raises fears for future of open debate on college campuses | The Free Speech Center

Charlie Kirk: No Saint or Martyr

Charlie Kirk was no saint or martyr. Catholics and Protestants claiming so blaspheme by equating a flawed man with Christ's perfection, offending Jesus the Lord, who alone is the par excellence. We value his life, of course, but pray for his soul because we know, based on his tone and divisive content, that he may not be in heaven. He was a troubled man with divisive and anti-Christian rhetoric who was misguided and lived his life based on polemics and not Christ. We applaud him for his celebration of free speech, but his claim to civil discourse is unfounded, as he engaged in rage-baiting, race-baiting, and engagement farming. It is our opinion here at Sacerdotus that Mr. Kirk was most likely showboating an exaggerated form of bravado and machismo. This was how he made his income. He was a professional public troll. It was a performance. Whether or not he was different in his private life is for God to judge. We sure hope so!

In conclusion, Kirk's legacy warns against conflating politics with faith. True Christianity demands love without borders, justice for all, and humility before God. May we learn from his errors and follow Christ alone.

Sources

1. The Washington Post: "Charlie Kirk mourned by a global right he influenced" (2025-09-13)
2. Combat Antisemitism Movement: "Antisemites Push Baseless Lies to Blame Jews and Israel for Assassination of Charlie Kirk" (2025-09-12)
3. TRT Global: "5 times Charlie Kirk made anti-Semitic remarks" (2025-09-11)
4. Forward: "Charlie Kirk kept a 'Jewish Sabbath.' What did he mean by that?" (2025-09-12)
5. eJewishPhilanthropy: "Jewish groups 'horrified' by Kirk's killing, rising political violence" (2025-09-11)
6. ADL: "Antisemitic and Anti-Israel Conspiracy Theories Follow Fatal Shooting of Charlie Kirk" (2025-09-12)
7. Jewish Herald-Voice: "Charlie Kirk, conservative activist who considered himself a defender of Jews and Israel, is dead at 31" (2025-09-11)
8. The New York Times: "Where Charlie Kirk Stood on Key Political Issues" (2025-09-12)
9. The Free Speech Center: "Charlie Kirk's slaying raises fears for future of open debate on college campuses" (2025-09-13)
10. Wikipedia: "Charlie Kirk" (2025-09-13)

11. The Times of Israel: "Conservative influencer and Israel advocate Charlie Kirk shot dead at Utah event" (2025-09-11)
12. Ynetnews: "'Lion-hearted friend of Israel': Charlie Kirk's legacy as a pro-Israel crusader reverberates after assassination" (2025-09-10)
13. Fox News: "NY Times corrects claim Charlie Kirk made antisemitic statement in story about political views" (2025-09-12)
14. US Holocaust Memorial Museum: "Museum on Charlie Kirk and Political Violence" (2025-09-11)
15. Al Jazeera: "Israeli leaders heap praise on Charlie Kirk as a staunch ally of Israel" (2025-09-11)
16. 19th News: "Charlie Kirk, right-wing activist, is fatally shot" (2025-09-10)
17. ADL: "Turning Point USA" (2019-02-13, updated)
18. AEI: "From Campus Rhetoric to Assassination: The Charlie Kirk Murder Should Terrify Us All" (2025-09-11)
19. Forward: "Netanyahu, Jewish leaders mourn Charlie Kirk" (2025-09-12)
20. Racism.org: "Charlie Kirk, White Supremacist, Dead at 31" (2025-09-13)
21. The Nation: "How to Canonize a White Supremacist" (2025-09-12)
22. Word In Black: "Racism, Rhetoric, and Charlie Kirk: A Reality We Can't Ignore" (2025-09-11)
23. The Guardian: "Charlie Kirk in his own words: 'prowling Blacks' and 'the great replacement strategy'" (2025-09-12)
24. WIRED: "'War Is Here': The Far-Right Responds to Charlie Kirk Shooting With Calls for Violence" (2025-09-10)
25. Yahoo News: "How Charlie Kirk turned to religion to level up his racism" (2025-08-04)
26. The New York Times: "Where Charlie Kirk Stood on Key Political Issues" (2025-09-12)
27. SPLC: "Case Study of the Hard Right | 2024 Year in Hate & Extremism" (2025-05-22)
28. Hindustan Times: "Charlie Kirk's beliefs: His opinions on religion, women, LGBTQ, racism and gun violence explained" (2025-09-11)

29. Los Angeles Times: "Some Christian nationalists mourn Charlie Kirk as a martyr, seek vengeance" (2025-09-12)
30. Mother Jones: "Charlie Kirk doesn't really seem to mind white nationalism" (2024-02)
31. ADL: "Turning Point USA" (2019-02-13)
32. The Intercept: "Nothing Will Stop Trump From Weaponizing Charlie Kirk's Killing to Attack the Left" (2025-09-11)
33. Ms. Magazine: "Dying to Be Men: American Masculinity as Death Cult" (2025-09-12)
34. Common Dreams: "Opinion | Charlie Kirk's Toxic Legacy of Hatred and Division" (2025-09-11)
35. CNN Politics: "Analysis: The ugly politicization of tragedy: from 9/11 to Charlie Kirk" (2025-09-11)
36. The Guardian: "Far-right commentators echo Trump in calling for 'vengeance and retribution' for Charlie Kirk's death" (2025-09-12)
37. FactCheck.org: "Viral Claims About Charlie Kirk's Words" (2025-09-12)
38. The New York Times: "Charlie Kirk, Right-Wing Force and a Close Trump Ally, Dies at 31" (2025-09-12)
39. Irish Times: "Charlie Kirk in his own words: 'prowling blacks' and his views on gun control" (2025-09-12)
40. WIRED: "How Charlie Kirk and TPUSA Plan to Discredit Martin Luther King Jr. and the Civil Rights Act" (2024-01-12)
41. CBC News: "Some of Charlie Kirk's most controversial takes" (2025-09-11)
42. Wikipedia: "Charlie Kirk" (2025-09-13)
43. The New York Times: "Where Charlie Kirk Stood on Key Political Issues" (2025-09-12)
44. FactCheck.org: "Viral Claims About Charlie Kirk's Words" (2025-09-12)
45. Mises Institute: "Charlie Kirk and the Sacred Totem of Civil Rights" (2025-09-13)
46. The Guardian: "Charlie Kirk: Trump ally and divisive provocateur who became US right's 'youth whisperer'" (2025-09-12)

47. The Guardian: "Charlie Kirk in his own words: 'prowling Blacks' and 'the great replacement strategy'" (2025-09-12)
48. Hindustan Times: "Charlie Kirk's beliefs: His opinions on religion, women, LGBTQ, racism and gun violence explained" (2025-09-11)
49. Common Dreams: "Opinion | Charlie Kirk's Toxic Legacy of Hatred and Division" (2025-09-11)
50. Yahoo News: "Fact Check: Charlie Kirk once said passing the Civil Rights Act was a 'huge mistake'" (2025-09-11)
51. Snopes: "Charlie Kirk once said passing the Civil Rights Act was a 'huge mistake'" (2025-09-11)
52. AZ Central: "Charlie Kirk in his own words: What the conservative commentator believed" (2025-09-11)
53. Black News: "Charlie Kirk Did Not Like Black People. He Called MLK 'Awful' and George Floyd a 'Scumbag'" (2025-09-11)
54. Al Jazeera: "Who was Charlie Kirk? What we know about the shooting and the suspect" (2025-09-11)
55. Yahoo News: "Fact Check: Charlie Kirk called Martin Luther King Jr. 'awful'" (2025-09-12)
56. BBC: "Charlie Kirk: Young fans and critics debate his political legacy" (2025-09-11)
57. ACLU: "ACLU Statement on the Death of Charlie Kirk" (2025-09-10)
58. NBC News: "Toxic rhetoric, including calls for 'civil war' and retribution, surges after Charlie Kirk killing" (2025-09-12)
59. Erin in the Morning: "We Must Not Posthumously Sanitize Charlie Kirk's Hateful Life" (2025-09-11)
60. The New York Times: "Charlie Kirk, Right-Wing Force and a Close Trump Ally, Dies at 31" (2025-09-12)
61. Common Dreams: "Opinion | Charlie Kirk's Toxic Legacy of Hatred and Division" (2025-09-11)
62. CBC News: "Manitoba cabinet minister won't lose job over repost condemning Charlie Kirk: Premier" (2025-09-12)
63. Racism.org: "Charlie Kirk, White Supremacist, Dead at 31" (2025-09-13)

64. The Guardian: "Charlie Kirk in his own words: 'prowling Blacks' and 'the great replacement strategy'" (2025-09-12)
65. Wikipedia: "Charlie Kirk" (2025-09-13)
66. The New York Times: "Right-Wing Activists Urge Followers to Expose Those Celebrating Charlie Kirk Killing" (2025-09-12)
67. The Guardian: "Black students and colleges across US targeted with racist threats day after Charlie Kirk killing" (2025-09-12)
68. Word In Black: "Racism, Rhetoric, and Charlie Kirk: A Reality We Can't Ignore" (2025-09-11)
69. The New York Times: "Where Charlie Kirk Stood on Key Political Issues" (2025-09-12)
70. News-Leader: "Charlie Kirk visited Springfield in 2023. What he said about immigration, climate change" (2025-09-10)
71. The New York Times: "Inside the Close Alliance Between Trump and Charlie Kirk" (2025-09-11)
72. TRT Global: "5 times Charlie Kirk made anti-Semitic remarks" (2025-09-11)
73. The Guardian: "Charlie Kirk's death shows political violence is now a feature of US life" (2025-09-12)
74. Hindustan Times: "Charlie Kirk's beliefs: His opinions on religion, women, LGBTQ, racism and gun violence explained" (2025-09-11)
75. NDTV: "Charlie Kirk Death: Secret Service Employee Sent On Leave For Calling Donald Trump Ally Racist" (2025-09-12)
76. FactCheck.org: "Viral Claims About Charlie Kirk's Words" (2025-09-12)
77. Newsweek: "Charlie Kirk's 'Black pilot' remark sparks fury" (2024-01-24)
78. Word In Black: "What the Assassination of Charlie Kirk Reveals About America" (2025-09-11)
79. Yahoo News: "Fact Check: Real Charlie Kirk quote about Black pilot qualifications circulates online" (2025-09-12)
80. Catholic Answers: "What Charlie Kirk Gets Wrong About Catholicism" (2025-01-07)
81. Reddit r/Christianity: "ELI5: what did Charlie Kirk do that was Christian?" (2025-09-11)

82. Reddit r/exchristian: "Charlie Kirk doesn't even Follow Jesus's Supposed Teachings" (2024-06-27)
83. Fox News: "Charlie Kirk was proud champion of Christianity on campuses nationwide: 'I'm nothing without Jesus'" (2025-09-11)
84. The New York Times: "Charlie Kirk's Christian Supporters Mourn Him as a Martyr" (2025-09-11)
85. House and Whips: "Charlie Kirk Religion: Christian Beliefs, Catholic, Mormon" (2025-09-10)
86. Catholic Answers Magazine: "Charlie Kirk: Friend to Catholics" (2025-09-10)
87. Liberty University: "Liberty University prays for family of Charlie Kirk, a friend, fervid Christ follower, and defender of the faith" (2025-09-11)
88. Catholic News Agency: "Charlie Kirk before death: 'I want to be remembered for courage for my faith'" (2025-09-11)
89. NBC News: "Charlie Kirk, right-wing activist and founder of Turning Point USA, wants to make America Christian again" (2024-06-13)
90. Al Jazeera: "Updates: Charlie Kirk shooting suspect Tyler Robinson, 22, in custody" (2025-09-12)
91. The New York Times: "Manhunt Continues for Killer of Charlie Kirk, Charismatic Right-Wing Activist" (2025-09-12)
92. AP News: "Conservative activist Charlie Kirk dead after being shot at Utah university event" (2025-09-11)
93. NBC News: "Charlie Kirk assassination prompts outcry over political violence" (2025-09-11)
94. The New York Times: "Charlie Kirk, Right-Wing Force and a Close Trump Ally, Dies at 31" (2025-09-12)
95. BBC: "Charlie Kirk: What we know about fatal shooting of conservative US activist" (2025-09-12)
96. NPR: "Charlie Kirk shooting suspect Tyler Robinson is in custody, officials say" (2025-09-12)
97. NPR: "Right-wing activist Charlie Kirk fatally shot at speaking event in Utah" (2025-09-10)

98. NDTV: "Charlie Kirk Shot Dead | Utah University Shooting News" (2025-09-12)
99. The New York Times: "Where and When Charlie Kirk Was Shot: Maps, Video and Photos" (2025-09-13)
100. National Catholic Register: "Charlie Kirk's Wife: What We Know About Erika Kirk's Catholic Faith" (2025-09-12)
101. Catholic News Agency: "Faith, family and God's mercy: Highlights from Erika Kirk's TV address" (2025-09-13)
102. Beliefnet: "What religion was Charlie Kirk?" (2025-09-10)
103. CatholicVote: "Charlie Kirk showed deep respect toward Catholic faith" (2025-09-11)
104. Catholic News Agency: "Charlie Kirk before death: 'I want to be remembered for courage for my faith'" (2025-09-11)
105. EWTN Great Britain: "Charlie Kirk's Wife: What We Know About Erika Kirk's Catholic Faith" (undated)
106. National Catholic Register: "Faith, Family and God's Mercy: Highlights From Erika Kirk's TV Address" (2025-09-13)
107. Catholic World Report: "Charlie Kirk before death: 'I want to be remembered for courage for my faith'" (undated)
108. National Catholic Register: "Charlie Kirk Before Death: 'I Want to Be Remembered for Courage for My Faith'" (2025-09-12)
109. Fulcrum7: "Charlie Kirk And His Wife Begin Keeping The Sabbath" (2022-03-25)
- X Posts:
110. Charlie Kirk (@charliekirk11): Post on Gaza refugees (2025-08-14)
111. Charlie Kirk (
@charliekirk11
) : Post on Democrat rep's Holocaust comparison (2025-08-05)
112. Charlie Kirk (@charliekirk11): Post on Democrat rep's Holocaust comparison (2025-08-05)
114. Charlie Kirk (@charliekirk11): Post on DHS guidance (2025-08-04)

- 116. Charlie Kirk (@charliekirk11): Post on UCLA funding freeze (2025-08-01)
- 117. Charlie Kirk (@charliekirk11): Post on Israel not starving Gazans (2025-07-28)
- 118. Charlie Kirk (@charliekirk11): Post on Gen Z views on Israel (2025-07-24)
- 119. Charlie Kirk (@charliekirk11): Post on Iran deportations (2025-07-14)
- 120. Charlie Kirk (@charliekirk11): Post on Israel debate (2025-07-13)
- 121. Charlie Kirk (@charliekirk11): Post on Trump ceasefire announcement (2025-07-01)
- 122. Charlie Kirk (@charliekirk11): Post on Trump ending wars (2025-06-27)
- 123. Charlie Kirk (@charliekirk11): Reply on NYC mayor candidate (2025-06-25)
- 125. Charlie Kirk (@charliekirk11): Post on Vance on Israel-Iran (2025-06-24)
- 126. Charlie Kirk (@charliekirk11): Post on show with Vance and Lee (2025-06-24)
- 127. Charlie Kirk (@charliekirk11): Post on Israel/Iran ceasefire live (2025-06-23)
- 128. Charlie Kirk (@charliekirk11): Post on ceasefire agreement (2025-06-23)
- 129. Charlie Kirk (@charliekirk11): Post on Iran missiles (2025-06-23)
- 130. Charlie Kirk (@charliekirk11): Post on National Review (2025-06-21)
- 132. Charlie Kirk (@charliekirk11): Post on Jesus defeating death (2025-09-06)
- 133. Charlie Kirk (@charliekirk11): Post on Christian revival (2025-09-03)
- 134. Charlie Kirk (@charliekirk11): Post on Vance at Catholic church (2025-09-03)
- 135. Charlie Kirk (@charliekirk11): Post on resurrection (2025-08-31)
- 136. Charlie Kirk (@charliekirk11): Post on telling about Jesus (2025-08-30)
- 137. Charlie Kirk (@charliekirk11): Post on trans shooter (2025-08-29)
- 138. Charlie Kirk (@charliekirk11): Post on wives submitting (2025-08-27)
- 140. Charlie Kirk (@charliekirk11): Reply on trans community (2025-08-27)
- 142. Charlie Kirk (@charliekirk11): Post on Annunciation shooting update (2025-08-27)

- 143. Charlie Kirk (@charliekirk11): Post on Annunciation shooting (2025-08-27)
 - 144. Charlie Kirk (@charliekirk11): Post on Hebrews 12 (2025-08-24)
 - 145. Charlie Kirk (@charliekirk11): Post on Somali rapist (2025-08-19)
 - 147. Charlie Kirk (@charliekirk11): Post on Lamar Jackson (2025-08-18)
 - 149. Charlie Kirk (@charliekirk11): Post on Jesus (2025-08-17)
 - 150. Charlie Kirk (@charliekirk11): Post on exorcist interview (2025-08-12)
 - 152. Charlie Kirk (@charliekirk11): Post on spending time with Jesus (2025-08-09)
 - 153. Charlie Kirk (@charliekirk11): Post on John 14:6 (2025-07-27)
 - 154. Charlie Kirk (@charliekirk11): Post on Jesus as answer (2025-07-25)
-