The former Cardinal, who was defrocked due to sexual abuse, spoke at several events hosted by the group, with excerpts of his remarks earning publication in CEFC China Energy's journal, "China Eye." McCarrick has asserted commonalities exist between Communist and Catholic doctrine along with drawing positive parallels between Xi Jinping and the Pope.

McCarrick also served as an envoy for negotiations between the Chinese Communist Party and the Vatican over establishing formal ties, with many criticizing the final deal as a "slap in the face" to China's Catholics. The establishment of formal relations between the two entities follow McCarrick's robust involvement with CEFC China Energy.

CEFC's Deputy Chairman and Secretary-General is Dr. Patrick Ho, dubbed "the fking spy chief of China" in exclusive audio released by The National Pulse from Hunter Biden's "Hard Drive from Hell."

Ho appears multiple times in the e-mails as the pair inked million-dollar contracts, earning Hunter Biden the position of "Managing Director" at CEFC by 2018. The Chinese Communist Party operative was later indicted by the U.S. Department of Justice for "schemes to bribe top officials for business advantages," and used the committee "to conceal his criminal schemes, according to the Department of Justice.
