

Expressions of moods are created through the Drama Department, which has presented three plays this summer: THE KINDLED FLAME was the first play; the setting was Rome. The plot of the story centered around the crucifixion. A BY LINE FOR ST. LUKE was the Christmas drama presented July 20th for the staffers' Christmas celebration. This play was written in a modern setting in which a young boy named Luke dreamed a child really was born on Christmas in his very own community---and his dream came true. A hilarious comedy, MY HERO was performed by the acting class. This play centered its plot around a young man named Larry, who has the habit of fainting everytime he hears a loud voice. His girlfriend's father doesn't have much faith in Larry's masculinity, so the girlfriend schemes to make Larry look gallant and brave in the eyes of her father. The story ends up with laughter, amusement, and fun for all. The Drama Department also includes the Speech Choir, which adds its personal touch to its various programs and activities.

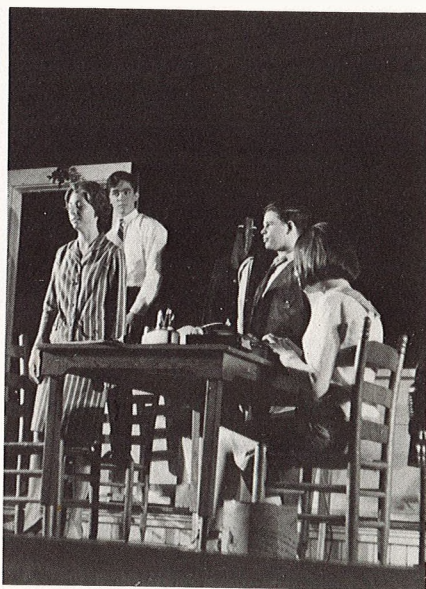

REHEARSAL . . . a mixture of mess, miscues, masque.

Backstage: A time for touch up on cast, as well as script.
